In this event, there it is necessary temporarily to hold stores in a depot, they are forwarded automatically when transportation is available without the necessity of further orders.

b) The appropriate Sub-Commission may enter stores be held subject to their order. The Depot accepts written release orders from said Sub-Commission, a copy being sent by the Sub-Commission to the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division).

c) The appropriate Sub-Commission may order Stores be held subject to the order of a named Region or Army. The Depot accepts written release orders from said Region or Army, a copy being sent by Region or Army to the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division).

d) Release instructions to the various depots are written on standard forms entitled "Shipping Order". These forms are available from the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) upon request.

10. In the event the appropriate Sub-Commission so desires the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) orders stores forwarded direct from port to a named consignee if and where conditions permit.

11. When requested by a Sub-Commission, the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) enters rail or water bids for shipment of supplies from its depots, or instructs Regional Depots to do so. Where rail bids are customarily entered by a Depot rather than by this H.Q., the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) instructs the Depot to enter the bid.

12. If a Sub-Commission requests stores be held subject to its orders and subsequently desires that said stores be held subject to the orders of a Region or Army, written instructions must be sent the depot with copy to the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division).

13. The Accounting Section of the Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division notifies the interested Sub-Commission of the quantity of merchandise received in the first depot of receipt after ship discharge.

14. Any depot listed in paragraph above advises consignee and the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) by signal of the detail (cargo, quantity, date shipped, car number or ship name) when stores are forwarded by rail or water. The Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division notifies the appropriate Sub-Commission and the Accounting Section.

15. When shipment is made from depot by motor truck consignee is notified by Loading Receipt given driver. In addition, a transfer Note is forwarded to the office authorizing the release, covering all shipments made by one depot to one consignee in one day. A copy of this transfer note is also forwarded to the Transportation Sub-Commission (Port, Shipment & Warehouse Division) for the attention of the Accounting Section.
